

NICHOL YEO

PARTNER

ABOUT NICHOL

Nichol is a Partner of the firm. Described as “sharp and attentive” (Legal 500, 2018), Nichol’s practice is focused on crisis litigation, shareholders’ disputes and investment recovery work for individuals and companies. He regularly advises and represents MNCs, listed companies and high-net-worth individuals in disputes as well as commercial transactional work. He also advises his clients, particularly listed companies and start-ups on governance and compliance issues.

Since his early years of practice, he has served his client’s interests in many complex and high-profile cases. Nichol’s vigour in undertaking urgent and critical work has also led him to achieve a track record of obtaining swift remedies and injunctions for his clients.

His knack for dispensing pragmatic and strategic advice and achieving practical outcomes has resulted in his loyal following of clients.

NOTABLE EXPERIENCE

- Represented City Harvest Church in civil proceedings to recover investments amounting to S$21 million: City Harvest Church v AMAC Capital Partners Pte Ltd & Anor [2015] SGHC 299.
- Represented a shareholder in one of the first reported cases in Singapore to obtain a waiver of quorum under Section 182 of the Companies Act: Lim Yew Ming v Aik Chuan Construction Pte Ltd [2015] 3 SLR 931.
- Successfully defended an action to void a trust deed involving assets in excess of S$ 10 million: Jocelyn Rita d/o Lawrence Stanley v Tan Gark Chong [2019] SGHC 125.
- Acted as lead transaction counsel in the sale and purchase of a group of logistics companies spread over Asia by a company listed on the Thailand Stock Exchange, with a transaction value of HKD 110 million.

KEY PRACTICE(S)

Civil Litigation
Shareholders' Disputes
White Collar Criminal Defence
Investment Recovery

CONTACT DETAILS

☎ +65 6789-1369

✉ nicholyeo@solitairellp.com

🌐 www.solitairellp.com